The change in Short-Term Loans is mainly due to the reclassification of balances from Long-Term to Short-Term regarding a national UDI-denominated bond nearing maturity, as well as the impact of exchange rate fluctuations. Finally, the change in Long-Term Loans is primarily due to the reclassification of balances from Long-Term to Short-Term regarding that same national UDI-denominated bond nearing maturity, as well as the impact of exchange rate fluctuations.

To maintain FIBRA's status, the Mexican Congress of the Union, through the Mexican Internal Revenue Services ("SAT", by its Spanish acronym), has established in the articles 187 and 188 of the Statutory Mexican Income Tax Law that the FIBRAs must distribute no less than 95% of their net tax income on annual basis to the holders of the CBFIs issued.

Fibra Uno has entered into the following agreements for the development of its operations:

 These financial commitments have hedges through Derivatives, see section 10.

The debt establishes certain covenants, which have been fully complied as of June 30, 2026, and December 31, 2025, as described below:

- Fibra Uno is obliged to pay, on or before the due date, the property tax and other contributions from its properties.
- Keep in good operating conditions all its useful goods and assets that are necessary for the proper operation of its business, except for normal wear and tear.
- Maintain insurance on its insurable assets with insurance companies of recognized prestige, in amounts against standard risks in the real estate industry and for sums insured sufficient to replace or repair the damage.
- Do not reduce the debt service coverage ratio (Net Operating Income (NOI) divided by Debt Service) below 1.5 times.

10. Derivative financial instruments

Fibra Uno has several derivatives that have the objective of partially limiting the market risk either due to movements in interest rates and / or exchange rates, which may affect the costs and values of its financial commitments.

In the case of Fibra Uno and its commitments, two types of derivatives have been contracted: Interest Rate Swap (IRS) and Cross Currency Swap (CCS). Once the acceptable risk analysis for the Entity's operation has been carried out, it has been decided to contract the mentioned derivatives to hedge the market risk according to its desired risk level.

Derivatives for Fibra Uno

First, a detail of the entire position, fair value of the derivative and fair value of the debt is shown, both from the IRS (Interest Rate Swap) portfolio and the CCS (Currency Swap) portfolio:

(1) International Bond for $775 million US Dollars, with semiannual interest payments at a fixed rate of 4.87%; maturing in January 2030:

a. Structure of 1 derivative with two objectives:

i. Partially hedge the principal payment of the international bond in the event of a potential peso depreciation, by guaranteeing the purchase of 275 million US Dollars at an exchange rate of 20.6700 pesos per US dollar.

ii. Transform fixed interest payments in US dollars at a rate of 0.00% into fixed payments in pesos at a fixed rate of 0.00% less a spread of 0.0650%.

(2) International Bond for $875 million US Dollars with semiannual interest payments at a fixed rate of 6.39% maturing in January 2050:

a. Structure of 1 derivative that aims to:

i. Partially cover the payment of the principal of the International Bond in the event of a possible depreciation of the peso by guaranteeing the purchase of 200 million US Dollars at an exchange rate of 19.9900 pesos per US Dollar. In return, Fibra Uno undertakes to pay the counterparty every month the amount resulting from multiplying the notional amount in pesos by an annual rate of TIIE minus 4.7200% (TIIE as of June 30, 2026: 6.7559%).

b. Structure of 1 derivative that aims to:
    i. Partially cover the payment of the principal of the International Bond in the event of a possible depreciation of the peso by guaranteeing the purchase of 200 million US Dollars at an exchange rate of 17.1500 pesos per US Dollar. In return, Fibra Uno undertakes to pay the counterparty semiannually, starting in the second half of 2027, the amount resulting from multiplying the notional amount in pesos by an annual rate of TIIE minus 4.9000% (TIIE as of June 30, 2026: 6.7559%).

c. Structure of 1 derivative that aims to:
    i. Partially cover the payment of the principal of the International Bond in the event of a possible depreciation of the peso by guaranteeing the purchase of 100 million US Dollars at an exchange rate of 16.8675 pesos per US Dollar. In return, Fibra Uno undertakes to pay the counterparty semiannually, starting in the first half of 2028, the amount resulting from multiplying the notional amount in pesos by an annual rate of TIIE minus 4.2950% (TIIE as of June 30, 2026: 6.7559%).

d. Structure of 3 derivatives that aims to:
    i. Partially cover the payment of the principal of the International Bond in the event of a possible depreciation of the peso by guaranteeing the purchase of 300 million US Dollars at a weighted average exchange rate of 20.3339 pesos per US Dollar. In return, Fibra Uno undertakes to pay the counterparty semiannually, starting in the second half of 2028, the amount resulting from multiplying the notional amount in pesos by an annual rate of TIIEF minus weighted average spread of 5.6701% (TIIEF as of June 30, 2026: 6.6300%).

Now, the derivatives fair value according to their nature in the Balance Sheet as of June 30, 2026, amounts to a liability of $3,046,785.

During the period, cash flow hedges were highly effective in hedging the foreign exchange exposure. For the cash flow hedges, the changes associated with the exchange rate were reclassified from OCI to results.

The first CCS (2), which hedges a portion ($200 million) of the USD principal on the International Bond due January 15, 2050, provides the Counterpart the right to terminate the swap with no future payments due by the Company or the Counterpart if there is a credit event with respect to Fibra Uno. It is because of this right of the Counterparty that the Notional of the derivative considers the probability of survival as of January 15, 2050 and changes until it reaches $200 million US Dollars. The valuation of the transaction reflects this linkage to the creditworthiness of Fibra Uno and the conditional nature of the Counterpart's obligation to make payments to Fibra Uno under the transaction.

On the other hand, if we consider the accumulated movement of the year of both portfolios, we have the following:

The capital gain or loss of this portfolio will then depend on the current movement and expectations of the TIIE and TIIEF.
